The main drawback to that country at present is the extreme difficulty of reaching it. Situate far in the interior, and entirely destitute of roads, trails, or any other means of communication by which supplies can be forwarded to the mines, or miners themselves reach the scenes of their labors, there is a degree of auxiety pervading the public mind just now as to what the action of the Government will be in reference to opening up a way be in reference to opening up a way whereby miners and supplies may reach the diggings in time to take advantage of the section best adapted both for active mining operations and to explore the country in search of new diggings. We have it upon the most undoubted author—ity that the Government might almost as well not appropriate anything toward trail-making in that direction, as to limit the amount to the sum mentioned. Four times that sum would barely suffice to meet the absolute requirements of the country, in order to make a route that For San Francisco Direct. tation of goods to the mines, and over which miners and packers can have access to the country. We are aware that there is a diversity of opinion as to which is really the shortest and best route to Omineca—some contending for the old route via the Mouth of Quesnel, and others for the new route via Skeepa River. It is not our purpose to express an opinion as to the merits of A FIRST CLASS WATER BRICK ther route-probably each has advantages peculiar to itself which the other has not but before undertaking to expend any considerable sum of money on trails the Government should institute proper inquiries with a view to ascertaining from parties who have traversed co have no personal interest in either to bias their judgment, and in that way a wise decision might be come to. We do not say that it would be advisable to be guided solely by such evidence in deter-mining a matter of that kind, but taken in connection with the reports of engineers or others competent to express an opinion, the Government would be in a better position to deal with the subject intelligently than possibly they otherwise would. The Bill passed the second reading, and was committed, Mr. Cogan in the chair.

Dr. Ash thought the bill would give a monand wife, T. Ellis and wife.

PRIVILGES. Mr. Beaven rose to a question of prilege Mr. Beaven said he would support Dr. In the Cotonist newspaper of the 5th inst, he Ash's amendment, as it was the nearest apbrought up the Trades License Bill was that the Government might strike Victoria off the estimates. He distinctly decied saying any such thing, the only time he reterred to the did not see that it could be right to legislate ment wight not consider the Trades Licenses as part of the general revenue. Mr. Humphreys rose to a question of privilege with regard to misrepresentation of his speech on Monday last, in the Colonist newspaper of the 5th.

PETITIONS, TO GOD Mr. Beaven presented a petition from Mr R. Plummer, in regard to the vacant seat for Victoria District, praying that the House declare the seat varant. Mr. Bunster took it for granted that the

Mr. Humpneys moved that the ge diemen who now are, and have been, holding and exercising the office of County Court Judges in this Province who renut strinters, and are not skilled in the law; and wiseress the present County Court system is anomalous and dangerous; and whereas it is expedient to appoint Barristers learned in the law, who small hold and exercise the office of County Court Judges; be it therefore resoived, that an humble address be presented to His Encellency the Governor General or Cases, praying that hot less than three competent County Court Judges be appointed for the Province of British Columbia, as soon as practicable. In moving the resolu-tion he said it was not his atention to occupy the time of the House unnecessarily, he was sure all the members were of the opinion that it was a matter of nece sity and expediency to have County Court judges, gentlemen learned in the law. Gross acts of injustice had occurred on the mainland under the present system, he cited the case of Captain Martiey vs. Carson, neighboring farmers in the Lilloot District, they had a di-pute about a water right, Carson, had a prior right to the water daty recorded, Mar ley sued Carson to restrain him from u nog the water and the magistrate granted an inj action. After this eccurrence the magis rate told him (Mr Hum be knew he had no authority to so so, but thought it would bring the part es to terms. What would be thought of such a system in other countries if it were know that gentlemen were permitted to hol the office of County udges who knew nothing of he law affecting property?

Ar. Jamieson seconded the resolut on. The Hon Unief Commissioner said the resoation was out of order; the House co ld no address the Governor General of Canada, be would suggest that the words Governor tien rat be struck out and that the words Lieut.

Governor be substituted.

Mr. Beaven suggested that a clause be inserted to the effect that County Court judges should not be allowed to practice. Mr. Robson stated the County Court judges are act allowed to practice by the Canadian Government whose servants they are and who
